Community Connection

LAUNCH NEW WEBSITE

Martin County EDA launched a new website https://martincountyeda.org. Designed with our communities in mind, our revamped online platform aims to provide easy access to valuable resources, information, and opportunities for businesses, residents, and stakeholders alike.

What's New?

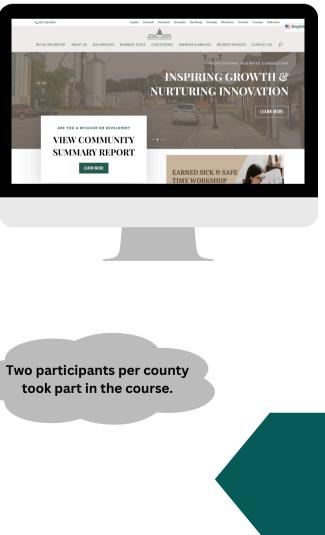

Our new website features a modern design, user-friendly navigation, and enhanced functionality, making it easier than ever to explore everything the Martin County EDA has to offer. Whether you're a local entrepreneur seeking support, a business owner looking to relocate, or a resident interested in community development, our website is your go-to destination for all things economic development in Martin County.

Festival/Event Training Course

The Festival and Event Training course served as a catalyst for bringing together various communities within both Faribault County and Martin County. The course fostered collaboration, cooperation, and shared experiences among communities. This course promoted community engagement, enhancing cultural exchange, and strengthening the overall sense of togetherness within the two counties.

BREAKFAST ON THE FARM

May 20th, 2023

Gerhardt Farm

The Martin County Economic Development Authority (MCEDA) contributed $1,000 towards this event

The event featured: Wagon Rides, Scavenger Hunt, Tractors, Butter Making, Princess Kay, Grain Tables, Farming in a Glove, Farm Animals & More!

CELEBRATING CULTURES EVENT

The Martin County Economic Development Authority helped organize this event and paid both panelists and interpreters for participating

EDA staff successfully applied for funds from SMIF to fund this event.

Community Connection

MARTIN COUNTY FAIR

At the Martin County Fair, the Martin County EDA hosted a booth aimed at fostering entrepreneurship within the community. Our booth provided valuable resources on starting a business, including frequently asked questions and business plan templates. Throughout the event, we engaged with numerous individuals who expressed interest in entrepreneurship or sought assistance in various aspects of business development. This initiative served as a platform to support aspiring entrepreneurs and promote economic growth within Martin County.

THE RETAIL COACH

The Martin County Economic Development Authority (MCEDA) and the Fairmont Economic Development Authority (FEDA) are proud to our collaborative efforts to enhance the economic landscape of Fairmont, Minnesota. In pursuit of our mission to stimulate growth and prosperity, we embarked on a strategic partnership with The Retail Coach to attract retailers and restaurants to our vibrant community.

COUNTY PROFILE

Martin Co.

Martin Co. is a part of Economic Development Region 9, which is located in the Southwest Planning Region.

POPULATION CHARACTERISTICS

2022 population:	19,650 people
Population change,	-1,190 people	Median Age:	44.8 years
2010-2022	-5.7% decline	state:	38.5 years

Martin Co. is the 49th largest of the 87 counties in the state. Its population decreased over the past decade, ranking as the 78th fastest growing in the state from 2010 to 2022. Martin Co.'s population has an older median age than the state and a larger percentage of people aged 65 years and older. The population is aging, especially as the Baby Boom generation moves through the population pyramid (see Figure 1).
